

TULSA OPENS GRID SCHEDULE TODAY WITH SAND SPRINGS

HIGHS TO CLASH AT LEE FIELD AT 3:30 IN SCHOLASTIC OPENER

Veteran Tulsa Eleven Is Presented—Sheehan Injured

S. S. IS FORMIDABLE

Ruppert to Play Halfback If State Scholastic Board Is Willing

BY LARRY DAILEY.

The scholastic football lid in Tulsa is piled off today when the Tules and Sand Springs high school elevens clash at 3:30 o'clock at Lee Field. The crimson and green presents a veterans' clash which Sand Springs' visitors over Chattanooga and Incarnate Word by 22 to 0 were expected to furnish stiff opposition.

The seven latter men are included on the Tulsa squad. Sheehan, tackle is that, is with an injured finger. Other other players' names are Conway, the author, Headford and Stone, ends.

Mike V. Quiller, guard; Morgan, fullback; the third and quarterback and Hughes, street boy, "Well Balanced Team."

Without Quiller the outfit and of the While even a heavy line faces Sand

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—A declaration

Dunham today announced Captain Morgan, a investigation as vice president and playing his first and company, effectively took after 14 years with the average around 170

it plays up to

to opposing

this season it

lack of speed

Whether it

remains to

S. STAR

of the

last season

er of the over his

he heard

scholastic

not be the

as the